

Wedding Outfit Combos | Designer Indian Wedding Dresses

Author : Kanchan Agarwal

Categories : Lifestyle

Date : 28/11/2014

Wedding day is special, yet lifelong memorable occasion for both bride and the groom. As you know the wedding day is approaching, a lot of planning is done to get the best on the floor. Especially, considering the richness of Indian tradition & culture where, weddings are a kind of celebration in the country, wedding outfits of the bride and the groom are one of the most focused areas. That's the reason why our fashion experts work hard on providing various patterns in these designer Indian wedding dresses. But there is an interesting turn in this fashion world of wedding season.

Friends, trends are moving onto wedding dress combo outfits these days to enhance the beauty of this auspicious occasion. It simply means that there is a demand for getting these wedding outfits in a mix match pattern where, the Indian bride and the groom carry the similar kind of pattern, colors & some sparkling effect of fusion trend.

Likewise, trendy fusion color combination in outfits of the bride and the groom will highlight the standard you owe. Also, heavy embroidery work done in the bride and the groom's outfits will reflect the perfect traditional look along with the class. Additionally, neon colors along with the floral prints design work will throw an eye candy to the guests at the wedding ceremony. Adding on to the rare cases, if the bride is wearing a blue Lehanga, then the groom can wear the black suit along with a blue shaded shirt & a blue tie.

Talking about some more designer Indian wedding dresses combinations, you can go for some bright and encouraging color combinations in Sherwani and Lehanga.

It could be the red Lehanga for bride and the groom wearing a white Sherwani with red dhoti. Or, a white Sherwani with red embroidery will also give a perfect match with your girl.

Pumping up these varieties, Ezyshine have plucked some special color combinations and patterns with fabric work to you give a perfect combo as a couple.

Here we Go!

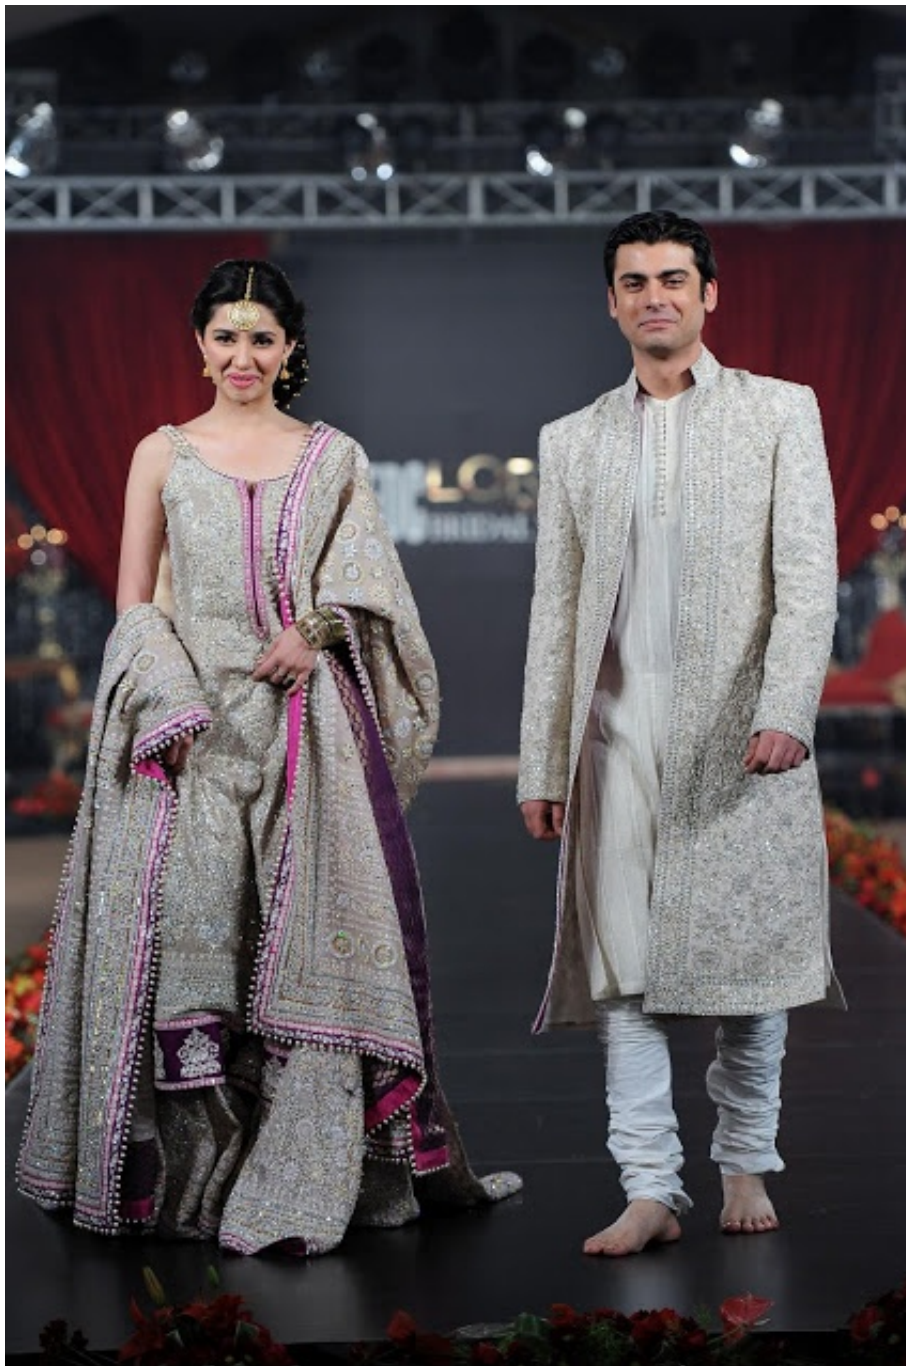

Presenting you the designer Indian wedding dresses with multiple patterns and colors in combo.

1. Wedding Dress Color Combos

Choosing wedding dress color combinations is the main key point to focus on. Give a break to all over used colors and amplify your special day with the mix match of new wave of colors. Ethnic wedding wear Sherwani & Mojris can be mix match with traditional Lahanga, Dupatta & Choli. As bride & the groom buy their wedding dresses from different places, so it becomes difficult to mix their pattern & textures.

Fabulous golden cream shade Sherwani with red payjama will go perfect with red & golden bridal lehanga. Moreover, bride can even try the shades of green & blue in the indo-western wedding Lehanga & Kurti. Plus, dark grey or black Sherwani with green & golden sequence work can be mix matches with green & blue shades of Lahanga.

2. Amazing Matching Patterns

After matching the color combinations, designers have brought up some exclusive designs & patterns to tune up the bridal & groom outfits. Designers have filled the market with mesmerizing collection of Sherwanis with same matching pattern of Lehanga. Now you can find the floral pattern or some boutique designs in groom wear that perfectly ties its knots with bridal wear. Not only this, bridal Lehangas are adorned with same stone, sequence or Moti work which embellish the Sherwani & Suits.

3. Fabrics for designer Indian Wedding Dresses

As wedding dresses are heavy and the bride & groom carries it for approx. 8-10 hrs. Comfortability of dresses is the major concern. Now, when the question of comfortability & charm arises, the Linen, Silk & Cotton Fabrics stands at the top position. This wedding season, you'll find the market flooded with these soft fabrics. Not only groom wedding outfit but designer Indian wedding dresses for bride can also be seen in these fabrics. As you all know, linen jackets are in fashion this season, so it's easy to make wedding outfit combos. \(Read: Trendilicious Indian Ethnic Wear for Men\)

4. Indo Western Fusion in Wedding Dresses

It's great to know that we can even see the Indo western fusion in these designer Indian wedding dresses. As you can see the groom wearing a Shewani in combination with Dhoti or a Jodhpuri coat, the same way, bride can wear the Lehenga in combination with Saaree having Dhoti pattern. Friends, this would give you a completely different look with keeping in mind the latest fashion trend. Apart from this, the combination of various fabrics is in flow with this mix match trend.

In Fact, apart from these dress combinations, various accessories are also mix-matched to add stars to your trendy outfit. Be it jewelry of the groom or the cufflinks, all are participating in enhancing the concept.

Everyone has a dream about their wedding day, & so their wedding dress too. Isn't it? So start fresh & mouse on to various online shopping portals where, these designer Indian wedding dresses are easily available in combination. Believe me darling, these wedding dresses will amaze you & you will love these combo outfits, just like 'Made for Each Other'.

The greatest thing to you will learn is just to Love & be Loved in Return